

Values Money and Me

HERO OR ZERO

KS1 Storybook

This is the Lee family.

Sue; her mum, Emily and her dad, Simon.

Sue Lee was on her way to Mrs Goleska's flat; she liked to chat to her.

Mrs Goleska is really nice and she also makes great cakes.

Sue was hoping she would get some cake - yum yum!

What's your favourite type of cake?

Mrs Goleska was having a clear out.
She wanted Sue to take some things to the charity shop.

The assistant in the charity shop was busy
so Sue had a look around.

There were lots of lovely things to buy,
and all for a good cause, but Sue had no money.

Sue decided to have a look in the bag that Mrs Goleska had given her.

There's lots of interesting things in here, thought Sue. I wonder what's in this box?

Sue opened the box and found a medal inside.

The medal had been awarded to Mrs Goleska's son for service in Afghanistan.

A lady in the shop saw Sue looking at the medal in the box.

“Oh, that looks interesting, can I have a look?”

But the lady was acting suspiciously.

She whispered, “Don't show the shop lady that, come outside and I'll give you £20 for it.”

Sue didn't know the lady but she liked the idea of getting some money.

I don't know what I should do, thought Sue.

The assistant in the charity shop saw Sue. "Hello, did you have some things for me?"

She looked at all the things in the bag and stopped at the medal.

"Are you sure Greta wants to give this? It belonged to her son, Peter. Maybe you should check with her, Sue."

Dilemmas

Sue doesn't know the lady, what should she do?

1. Go outside with her and get the money
2. Say "no" to the lady
3. Tell the shop assistant
4. Do something else

Think of all the things she could buy with £20!

So Sue went back to Mrs Goleska's with the medal. "Oh my goodness," she said, "to imagine I nearly lost my Peter's medal."

"It's so precious to me, it reminds me of Peter. He was awarded this medal by his regiment for being a hero, you know."

And with that, Mrs Goleska gave her £2 to thank her for being so thoughtful.

Now I can go back to the shop and buy some lovely things, thought Sue.

