

Values Money and Me

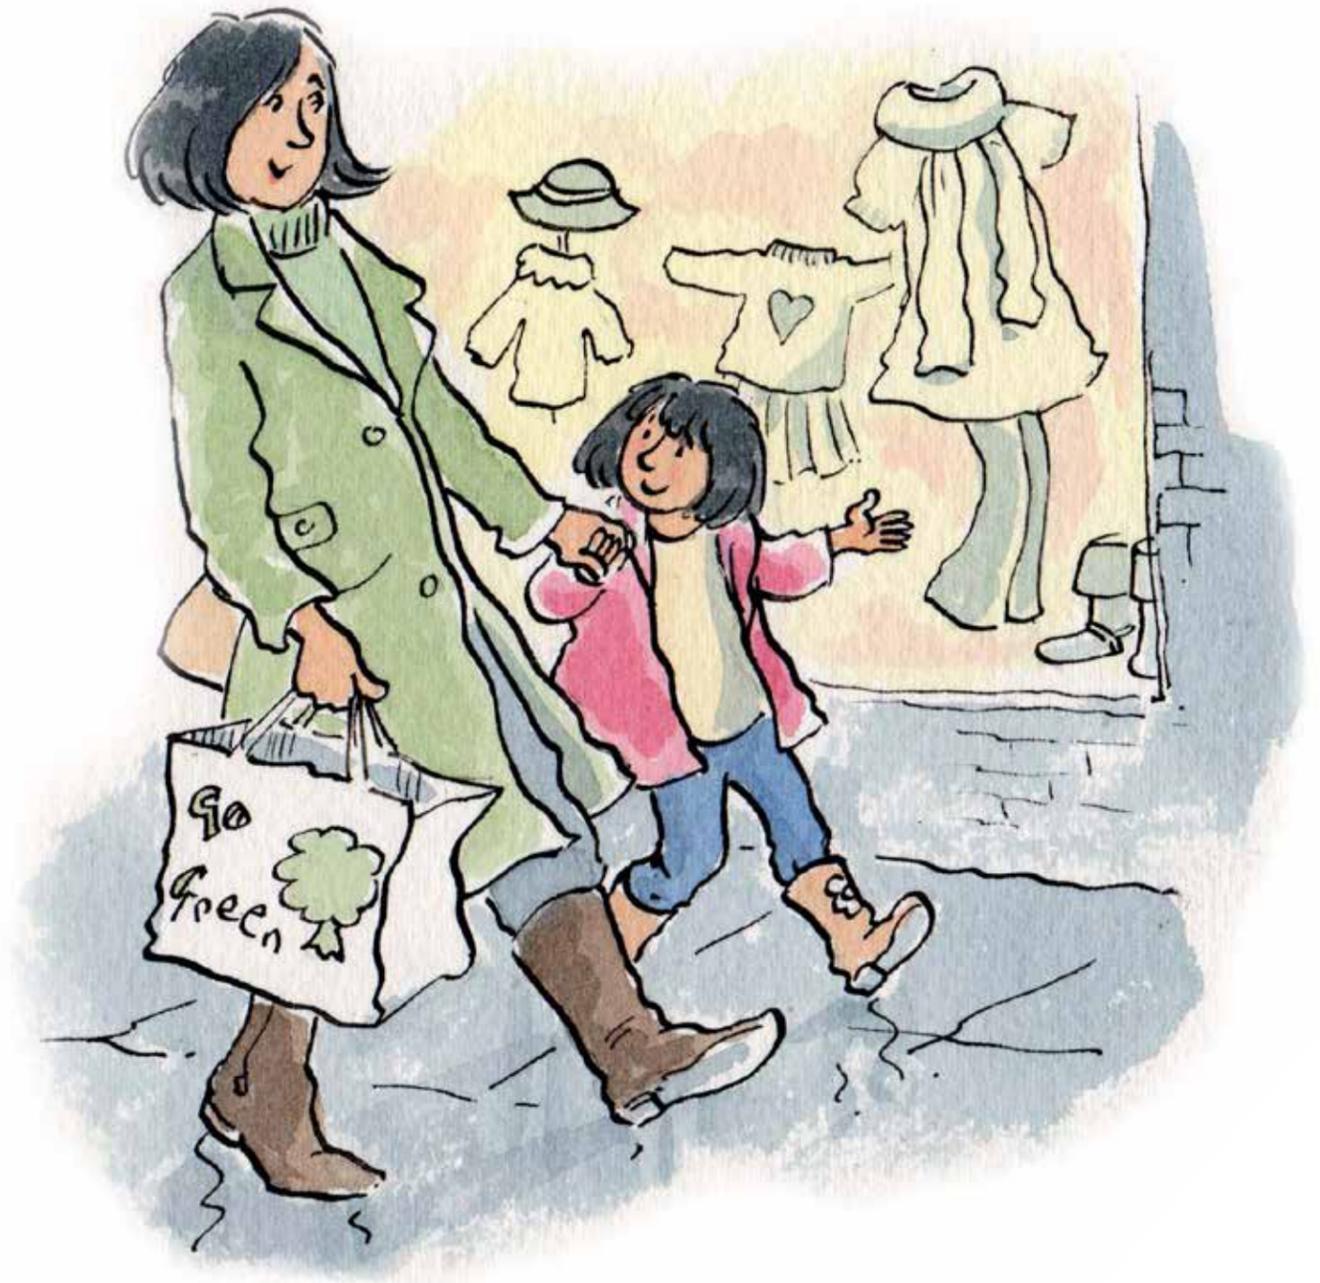

I WANT IT! KS1/2 Storybook

This is Tara Naidoo's family.
Grandma Rupa, Mum (Meena), Dad (Anil),
Tara and Mira.

Tara and her mum liked to go to the shops to look around.
They went to the toy shop. It was full of exciting things.

“Look at the bear,” said Tara. “I want it!”
Mum pretended she couldn’t hear.

They went to the bookshop.
“Look at this book,” said Tara. “I want it!”
Mum pretended she was busy.

They went to the pet shop.

“Look, a hamster,” said Tara. “I want it!”
Mum said, “Oh Tara, you can’t just have EVERYTHING you want!”

“Why?” asked Tara. “But I want things.”

“I can’t afford to buy things, just like that,
whenever you want them,” said Mum.

They went to the cafe.

Tara had a milkshake and Mum had a cup of tea.

Mum had a look on her face that usually meant they were going to have a 'serious talk'.

"Did I do something wrong?" asked Tara.

"I want to talk to you about pocket money" said Mum.

"Now you are old enough, I am going to give you pocket money each week, so you can save up and buy the things you want, yourself."

"We are also going to give you some money for doing some little jobs around the house, if you want" said Mum.

Tara was very excited. She was going to get £2 a week, and a new money box to save it up in.

Tara thought about the things she could buy.

What would you like to buy?

“You could start saving up for that hamster, yourself,” said Mum.

“Oh, how long will that take?” asked Tara.

“We could work it out together,” said Mum.

